PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Booth Tarkington and Harry L. Wilson's new play for Otis Skinner contains an actor and actress and a rich young man blinded by the tinsel glory of the stage.

William Faversham's new play, "The Barber of New Orleans," has been novelized by the author, Edward Childs Carpenter, and is being issued in book form now.

Alexander Bisson's play, "Le Femme," in which Mme. Jane Hading has been appearing in Paris, has just been secured by Henry W. Savage, who will produce it in this country next season.

Margaret Wycherly has been engaged for a term of years by Daniel Frohman and will make her first appearance under his management in "The Thief," with Charles Dalton featured with her.

Berstein's "Baccarat," played recently in New York in German, and to be produced soon by Harrison Grey Fiske, is entitled "La Rafale" in the original French version performed in Paris recently.

Max Rogers will play a young German boy when he stars alone next season. Aaron Hoffman is already at work on the new play in which the survivor of the famous Rogers Brothers team is to go it alone.

Edmund Day's novel "Squire Finn," which has achieved so much popularity, is being dramatized by Eugene Presbrey and will be produced some time in September next under the title depends entirely upon the way it is laundered. Some laundries will take a brand new collar and launder it so poorly that it will fit like a collar which is several years out of date. Our modern methods for shaping collars give them a style, finish and fit which cannot be questioned by the most fastidious. We invite trial packages from all who are interested in high-grade work. Phone us and our wagon will call.
